

TAGA EAG

These are our top 10 most frequently asked questions about polished concrete.

If you would like any more information, please contact us on:

020 8462 4050

- Can a polished concrete floor be laid as a seamless finish? Yes, as long as the existing concrete slab has no day joints.
- Can a polished concrete floor be laid over underfloor heating? Yes, our polished concrete can be, but only if it is a water-based system.
- What is the depth of the finished polished concrete layer?

 Our Polished Concrete finishes are between 5 & 7mm deep.
- Is a polished concrete floor suitable for external use?

 Yes, there is a polished concrete product that can be used externally.
- Can a polished concrete floor be laid on stairs?
 Yes, we can lay our polished concrete product on stairs.
- Can polished concrete floor be used in wet rooms?

 Yes, there is a polished concrete product suitable for wet rooms.
- Is polished concrete flooring available in other colours and finishes?

 Yes, our polished concrete products are available in a variety of colours and finishes.
- 8 Is there a polished concrete product suitable for interior walls? Yes, we can use our product on interior walls.
- How durable is a polished concrete floor?

 Polished concrete is highly durable and can be used in commercial environments.
- Can a polished concrete floor be laid over an existing timber floor?

 Yes, polished concrete can be laid over an existing timber floor, but colours and finishes are limited.

www.polishedconcreteco.co.uk

